SIDEKICK Twist-Free Carabiner Retractable Keychain and Badge Reel That Holds Up to 5 Keys and ID Badge - Classic

MAIN GROUP

Product Description

The Sidekick Retractable Keychain & Badge Reel is small but mighty and capable of holding up to 5 keys and a badge, making the Sidekick one of the top selling retractable badge reels among working professionals. Built in the USA with globally sourced materials, the Sidekick has a strong molded black polycarbonate case and a retractable cord made with DuPont™ Kevlar® fiber. Attach your keys and badge to the twist-free end fitting and secure the carabiner to your belt clip, work vest or backpack. When you need your keys just pull them out, when your done let them go and the built-in tether retracts back into place until you need them again. When you're looking for an all-in-one everyday carry companion to secure your keys and badge the Sidekick is your best option.
